FOREWORD

This is an account of Delta State, 1963. When you turn through the pages of this yearbook, the Broom staff hopes you will find the memorable events, the moods, the opinions—all the entities of Delta State recorded here.

A simple object—the door—has been used as a symbol throughout this book. It is a symbol to remind you of the doors you have opened at Delta State. Perhaps you were on your way to classes, or to some social event, or perhaps on your way to meet a friend. Perhaps as you opened some particular door, you were on your way to a greater insight into knowledge, a higher step into maturity, or a broader understanding of all of life.

The staff further hopes that this book will serve, now and in the future, to re-open the doors to memories at Delta State.

Betty Andrews, Editor

Oh, Delta State, we cling to the memory of happy days we've spent;
Of standards high and friendships
dear

Making our life there something
to treasure;

We have come to sing the praises
of the school we love best.

Oh, hail to you, to our dear
Alma Mater,

All hail to ole Delta State.

DELTA STATE COLLEGE

Established as Delta State Teachers College by act of Legislature in 1924 in Cleveland, Miss. Site donated by Bolivar County. Officially opened September 15, 1925. Present name adopted in 1955.

Making a smashing comeback after their defeat in the Southeast Missouri game, the Delta Statesmen took Troy State 30 to 0. HOWARD COLLEGE—8

This game proved to be the highlight of the season for the Statesmen. Delta completely overpowered previously undefeated Howard College, with a 15 to 8 victory. While Howard managed only 6, the Statesmen collected 25 first downs and allowed the Bulldogs only 45 yards rushing to their 290.

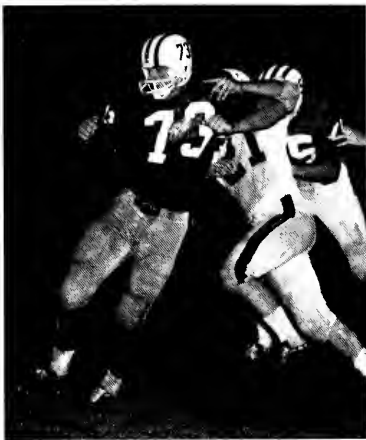

Delta's 15-8 win over the Bulldogs came as the sole product of desire on the part of every member of the Statesmen squad. Each man played his position as if there would be no tomorrow, doing his job and then some.

The team clears the field for Davenport.

Again, the extra point haunted the happy Statesmen. Jubilant over their rival Howard College the week before, the Deltans couldn't muster that needed extra point to match the one the Vols managed to boot. Delta State brought back a one point loss, although Gale Davis turned in his best performance, rushing for 86 yards.

In spite of the rain, a spattering of fans turned out to watch the Statesmen slush to a 26-14 win over the Lions of Florence State. Delta tallied first on an 18-yard spurt by halfback Donnie Cotten, but failed to make the extra point. However, the Statesmen's lead was shortlived, as Florence State's fullback Carl Barton took the kickoff and returned it 75 yards to the Delta eight-yard stripe. The extra point, which put the Lions ahead at halftime, was made by Bobby Jackson.

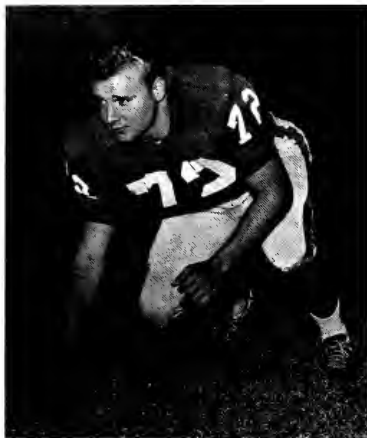

Halfback Bruce Ziegler started the Statesmen on the comeback train in the third quarter as he took a Lion punt and raced 60 yards for the tally. Larry Wood notched six points while rushing for 76 yards to lead the Green and White in this victory.

NORTHEAST LOUISIANA—0

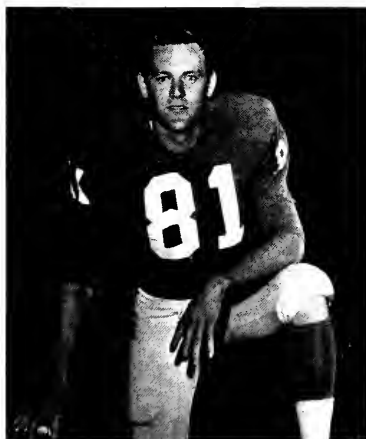

This game was played before a slim crowd in a driving rain on a muddy field, but the Statesmen overcame the elements and a determined Northeast Louisiana State squad to defeat the Indians 12-0.

Halfback Donnie Cotton raced in for the first Delta tally and at halftime the score stood 6-0 in Delta's favor.

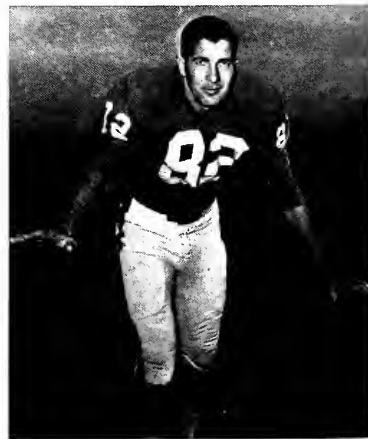

Northeast was denied scoring bids in the second half of play by the stubborn Delta defense, and the Statesmen went on to win in the fourth quarter, as Cotton scored again.

A newcomer to the Delta schedule, East Central was downed in this Thanksgiving Day game 24-19. This victory wrapped up the 1962 football season with a 7-2 record for the Statesmen. Cotton put the Green and White ahead with a dazzling 98 yard kickoff return to open the ball game. W. L. Whittington caught a Laurin Collins pass for 58 yards which set up Delta's second touchdown against East Central.
